Holy Family Catholic Church

May 11, 2025
The Fourth Sunday of Easter

O God, whose Son Jesus is the good shepherd of your people:
Grant that when we hear his voice
we may know him who calls us
each by name,
and follow where he leads;
who, with you and the Holy Spirit,
lives and reigns,
one God, for ever and ever.
Amen.

Pope Leo IV

"Lord God, we lift up all mothers to You. Grant them the strength to face the daily challenges with courage and the wisdom to guide their children towards a life of faith and service. Encourage them when they are weary and inspire them when they feel overwhelmed. Bless them with Your peace and love, now and forever. Amen.

"In the Gospels we hear Jesus refer to his mother Mary as ""Woman"". This reference should draw our attention to the woman mentioned in Genesis, as well as in the book of Revelation. But who is this ""Woman"", and why is she so central in the history of Salvation? This powerful film presents the beautiful Catholic teaching about Mary, the mother of Jesus, and her important role in the Church and in the lives of Christians today. Combining many gorgeous images from classic sacred art with a lovely soundtrack, the dogmas of the Mother of God: Immaculate Conception, Perpetual Virginity, and Assumption are explained, along with other traditional beliefs and devotions to Mary. Insightful commentary is provided by Fr. Marcus Holden, Fr. Andrew Pinsent, Sister Mary of the Trinity, Fr. Jeff Steel, and Joanna Bogle, along with a number of young people speaking about their faith and love of Our Blessed Lady."

Spirit Center at the Monastery of St. Gertrude
The Center for Benedictine Life at the Monastery of St. Gertrude welcomes the monastery of your heart. Here, the quest within and the world without join hands. Prompts of the Spirit and their counterparts in key moments, find a voice in the sanctuary of your journal, the sanctuary of the heart. Journaling, Joan Chittister says, is an “x-ray of your soul.” It gets beneath our facades to the bone, blood, tissue, and the spiritual depths they house. Journals are intimate exploring's of the pain and beauty hidden in our exterior and interior landscapes. CONTACT: Betty Schumacher, OSB at bschumacher@stgertrudes.org or call 208-962-2000. Letter from Father

11 May 2025
4th Sunday of Easter
Habemus Papam!

Greetings,

I usually write my weekly letter on Thursday so that I can comment on current events if necessary. I am writing this on Thursday morning, waiting with great anticipation, to see who our new Pope will be. I came to the realization that, during the same period of waiting for the previous three popes, I have been at school. It was a with great excitement that I burst into the middle school classroom and announced that white smoke was coming from the chimney at the Sistine Chapel. I was so moved to see the excitement that our students had for the news, even those who do not share our Catholic Faith.

Update: I went back to my office after sharing the good news and a short time later, a cheer went up from our students when they watched our new Holy Father emerge onto the balcony of the Apostolic Palace. They had a million questions about him and even asked me to translate what Pope Leo XIV was saying. And when they found out that he was American, they really erupted.

This is a moment of great joy and excitement for our Church. Even as we grieve the death of Pope Francis, we give thanks to God for sending us a new leader. The Pope not only leads us in our everyday practice and professions of our Faith, he is the Vicar of Jesus Christ on Earth. It is he who holds that wonderful and humble authority of Christ among us. The tradition of popes changing their name isn’t just so that he is highlighted amongst others, it is in fact honoring the moment when Christ established the power of the papal office, calling Simon by his new name of Peter for the first time, the Rock upon which His Church was to be built.

We give thanks to God for His great Love and Mercy and pray that, with our new pope, our Church will continue Her great work of calling the world to Salvation.

Blessings,

Fr Jeff Core
