The world watches with interest as cardinals gather in conclave – literally under lock and key – to elect the next pope. The rarity of the event, the ceremony and secrecy add to the intrigue.

The centuries-old chapel adorned with Michaelangelo's frescoes has been the site of every papal election since 1878.

A sweep is performed for electronic devices, even on the electors.

Placing a hand on the Gospels, each one swears to uphold the rules and secrecy of the conclave. Any communication with people outside is forbidden. They may not receive messages or news.

Ballots and Voting

Ballots are counted by three “scrutineers.” The work is checked by three “revisers.” The ballot counters and verifiers are chosen by lot at the start of the conclave.

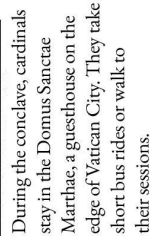

A two-thirds majority is required to elect the new pope.

A chimney is installed on the roof of the Sistine Chapel for the conclave. In the back corner of the chapel, a stove is set to burn ballots and related papers, including notes taken by the electors, each morning and afternoon.

If balloting is successful, a chemical is added to produce the celebratory white smoke - the signal that the Church has a new pope.

The last seven conclaves lasted only a few days.

Pope	Days	Ballots
Francis	2	5
Benedict XVI	2	4
John Paul II	2	8
John Paul I	1	4
Paul VI	2	6
John XXIII	3	11
Pius XII	1	3

The one who is elected is asked if he accepts the election as pope. If he accepts, he chooses the name he will take. From the central balcony of St. Peter's basilica, the senior cardinal deacon proclaims, "Habemus papam!" (We have a pope!), and announces his name. The new pontiff appears on the balcony and imparts his first papal blessing.

Changing Sides Abby Johnson Story

Can hearts really be changed on the issue of abortion?

This film tells the powerful true story of the conversion of a dedicated Planned Parenthood director to a leading Pro-life Activist. Abby Johnson was the director of the abortion facility that was the launching pad of the bold new pro-life effort - 40 Days for Life.

Abby believed that she was helping women by working for the nation's largest abortion operation, Planned Parenthood. She quickly rose in the ranks to become the director of an abortion facility and was even given an "Employee of the Year" award.

But one Fall morning everything changed. Abby suddenly she found herself on the other side of the fence, facing the truth about abortion. The real question now was, in her time of crisis, what would she do and who would help her?

This film reveals what happens when people pray, fast, sacrifice, love their enemies and take a stand on the most controversial issue of our time - abortion. Fences come down, hearts change, and the love of God shines light in the darkest, most unexpected places. And the evil of abortion is exposed and defeated.

The film includes exclusive interviews with those Abby encountered while she was on both sides of the fence including - the activists who prayed for her daily, the secular media who broke the big story of her conversion, the attorney who won the massive lawsuit that Planned Parenthood tried to silence her with and more.

Letter from Father

4 May 2025
3rd Sunday of Easter
Our Dignity in the Sacraments

Greetings,

As the Easter season progresses, we have a joyful day of Sacraments at Holy Family this Sunday. After Mass, I will baptize Gianna Catherine Dagelen, the newborn daughter of Evan and Nicole. It is what will happen during the Mass that is kinda special. You’l actually get a preview of our celebration of Confirmation and First Eucharist for our young people when we celebrate the Confirmation and First Eucharist for Gabriel Scheel, the youngest son of Michael and Tonya.

About twelve years ago, Gabe had a near-drowning accident that left him with profound brain trauma and serious physical challenges. Because of these issues, Gabe has not been afforded the opportunity to receive remaining Sacraments of Initiation when it was time for him to do so. The Holy Family Parish community has the honor of providing these Sacraments to Gabe and we rejoice with the whole of Holy Mother church as he completes his initiation into the Faith.

The usual questions of how someone like Gabe is able to participate in the Sacraments are natural. The beauty of these Sacraments is that the recipient need only express some understanding of what it is they are receiving, even if that person is unable to speak that expression. This can be as simple as a change in demeanor in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament or even an expression of joy when they enter a church for Mass. Shortly before his accident, Gabe told his mother that he felt like God was calling him to be an angel for her and his family. This was a remarkable sense of the Universal Call to Holiness to which every baptized person is called. Gabe said “angel” when, were he a little older at the time, he might have said “saint”. It is enough, even if he is unable to say so, that Gabe has expressed a desire to serve God and live a holy life, a life which must include the Sacraments.

This might be a new experience for some of you. I look at this day as a wonderful example of God calling all of His children to the Light of Life. St. Therese of Lisieux made the following observation which I think perfectly sums up this day. She said, “The splendor of the rose and the whiteness of the lily do not rob the little violet of its scent nor the daisy of its simple charm. If every tiny flower wanted to be a rose, spring would lose its loveliness.”

We celebrate this day of joy with Gabe, his parents and brothers, and the whole Church Herself and give thanks to God for the opportunity to be real witnesses to His Love and Mercy throughout the world.

Blessings,

Fr Jeff Core
