Ministry Schedule Reminder

Summer is a busy time for all of us. If you are scheduled to serve and become unavailable, it is your responsibility to find a substitute.

When a substitute request is submitted, it is sent to all ministers. However, there are many occasions when no one accepts the request, leaving Father without the assistance needed during Mass.

To help avoid scheduling conflicts, please keep your availability updated in the MSP app. Updating your unavailable dates in advance will help ensure you are not scheduled when you already have other plans. Thank you for your commitment and service to our parish community.

Please continue to pray for the names on our Prayer Chain.

Due to space in the shortened bulletin during summer months, only NEW names will be listed.

New Prayer Chain Names:

Justin Stewart & Family; Luke; Mike Wilson; John Mitchell

Reminder, Wednesday Mass times for the Summer at Holy Family will be at 8:00am. Starting July 5th Sunday Mass at Holy Family will be at 9:00am.

What is The Nativity of St. John the Baptist? His feast day is June 24th.

The birth of John the Baptist, chronicled in the Gospel of Luke, is a miraculous event. Born to elderly, formerly barren parents – the priest Zechariah and Elizabeth – his arrival was foretold by the angel Gabriel, who struck Zechariah mute for doubting the divine promise until the birth occurred.

Two interesting facts about John the Baptist:

1. Miraculous Birth: According to biblical accounts, John was born to Zechariah, a Jewish priest, and his wife Elizabeth. Elizabeth was well past childbearing age and was barren, making his birth a miracle announced by the angel Gabriel.

2. He was Second Cousins with Jesus: John and Jesus were closely related. The Gospel of Luke recounts that Mary visited Elizabeth while pregnant, and the unborn John leaped in Elizabeth's womb upon hearing Mary's voice.

Middle School Camp August 9-14

The Diocese of Spokane holds a week long camp for our middle school students.

It is held up by Wallace ID, at the Shoshone Mountain Retreat and Ranch. This is a great time for our students to gather with other students from our Diocese in Adoration, Mass, small group and LOTS OF FUN!

More information will be sent out as it becomes available.

Questions or to sign up please email: dparis@dioceseofspokane.org

Special prayer for ALL Fathers this Fathers Day

Loving and merciful God, we thank you for all fathers. Provide for them as they provide for their children. Bless them with courage and perseverance so they may walk always in your ways and delight in the significant moments of their lives. Strengthen them in Word and sacrament to live and proclaim their faith. Entrust them to the protection of St. Joseph. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen
